-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 6/14/07 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 1-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by Bowden (2002/0149698).

Regarding claims 1-26, Bowden discloses all the features of the instant invention as discussed from paragraph 0024 to paragraph 0036. In addition, Bowden further states that the displayed alphanumeric characters (not the scoreboard background), such two teams names or initials, scores and time, are colored in a respective team color (see paragraph 0013).

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments filed 6/14/07 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

In considering applicant's argument that the applied reference does not disclose any of the specific score indications now defined in each of the independent claims, the examiner disagrees. As set forth in the rejections above, Bowden indicates that the color of the alphanumeric characters can be colored into the respective team jersey colors. The alphanumeric characters can be the respective team names, scores, and other data (see paragraph 0011). This coloring scheme of Bowden is not limited to display only team names and scores; it is also intended to display many other letter-coloring functions. The only limit is one's imagination. However, the unlimited color renderings do not carry any patentable weight because they are nothing but decorative and ornamental functions. It is understood that decorative and ornamental functions are not patentable subject matters. Otherwise, an unimaginable number of patents would have generated if every simple color alteration on a subtitle were patented. Since applicant fails to overcome the prior art, the Office rejection still stands.

Conclusion

5. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to M. Lee whose telephone number 571-272-7349. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday through Thursday from 9 to 6.
